

Compulsory Subjects

2441601      Theory and Foundation of Governance      3 credits

THEO FDN GOVN

Origin, development and application of theory and foundation of Governance in various aspects; debates on Governance issues in developed and developing countries; mechanism towards Governance from public, private and people sectors; selected contemporary Governance literature; suggestions of appropriate Governance Model.

2441602      State and Governance      3 credits

STATE GOVN

Governance in state-based approaches; public affairs and Governance; study on the form of state and regime affecting Governance; state mechanism on policy level, legal form and strategies as means to Governance; roles of Governance in state development; contemporary challenging issues in Governance.

2441603      Corporate Governance      3 credits

CORP GOVN

Study of Governance from the private sector's perspective and experience; Corporate Governance in transnational corporation and Public-Private-Partnership projects; roles of Corporate Governance in development integration on state, sub-regional and regional levels; Corporate Governance indicators and application.

2441604      Democracy, Civil Society and Governance      3 credits

DEM CIV SOC GOVN

Relationships between Governance and democratization process and civil society; study on philosophy, meaning, typology and exemplary of democratic states; social movement and modern states; analysis of the relationship between and the discourse of democracy and civil society in promoting Governance; cases from selected countries.

2441605      Governance and Public Sector Reform      3 credits

GOVN PUB REF

Public sector reform as a driving force to Governance; analysis of public sector reform in structural, legal, budgetary and human resource management context; arguments of state-led Governance; problems, opportunities and suggestions of relevant public sector reform that may good governance-appropriate for social context.

2441606      Research in Governance      3 credits

RES GOVN

Philosophy, concepts and characteristics of Governance research in State Governance, Corporate Governance and Governance in Civil Society; research topics, research questions, literature review, conceptual framework, research design, population and sampling, data collecting tools, data analysis and research summary.

2441811	Thesis	12 credits
	THESIS

2441816	Thesis	36 credits
	THESIS	